

BEST AVAILABLE COPY*REMARKS

As requested by Examiner Pak in a telephone conversation on or about March 24, 2005, Applicants enclose herewith a new page 10, which has been retyped and is much more legible. Also, as requested by the Examiner, Applicants have changed the use of the term "catalytic material" in several claims to refer to the chemical deactivating composition.

The Applicants appreciate the opportunity to correct these deficiencies.

Respectfully submitted,
